

CODE OF CONDUCT

for

EMPLOYEES

FOREWORD

This Code of Conduct informs employees of the expectations of them during their employment with the Shire of West Arthur. In accordance with this Code we must, as representatives of the Shire of West Arthur, conduct ourselves professionally and with integrity when working with the community, Councillors and each other toward achievement of our goals and objectives.

The Shire has adopted a core set of values and signature behaviours which guide the way in which Shire employees should behave. These values and behaviours underpin the building of professional relationships and the conduct obligations outlined in this Code.

Shire Values

- a. Listening
- b. Considered Decision Making
- c. Appreciation
- d. Respect
- e. Team Work

Signature Behaviours

- a. Actively listening and respecting others' opinions
- b. Having courage to give feedback and receive it with an open mind
- c. Planning, reflecting and sharing our learnings
- d. Thanking each other for a job well done
- e. Getting to know each other and the roles that we play
- f. Creating a fun, supportive and encouraging workplace
- g. Acknowledging each other's skills and experience and working together

I ask that all employees read and be familiar with their accountabilities under this Code and seek clarification if they are unsure of anything. Together, we can confidently work together to meet the needs of the community today and into the future.

Chief Executive Officer
Nicole Wasmann

Vision and Values

Our Corporate Vision

In 2028 the Shire of West Arthur will be a sustainable local government supporting a vibrant community.

Our Corporate Mission

To value and enhance our community lifestyle and environment through strong local leadership, community involvement and effective service delivery.

Our Values

The values which the community and councillors identified as the most important for how the Shire will function and develop include:

Safety	We will have at the forefront of all operations and future developments, the safety of our people and environment.
Sustainability	We will make decisions based on the long term sustainability of the Shire of West Arthur.
Vibrancy	We will support and encourage a vibrant community and economy.
Pro-Active	We will be pro-active and innovative in order to respond and adapt to a changing world.
Viability	We will maintain the viability of the Shire through good governance and supporting local businesses and agriculture.

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. This Employee Code of Conduct (Code) details professional conduct and behaviour expectations of Shire employees, including obligations relating to conflicts of interest, disclosures of interests, gifts, and confidentiality.
- 1.2. For the purposes of this Code an employee means a person:
 - a. employed by the Shire under section 5.36(1) of the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act); or
 - b. engaged by a local government under a contract for services (to the extent applicable).
- 1.3. This Code serves to:
 - a. demonstrate a commitment to ethical and professional standards in the performance of duties and functions;
 - b. outline required behaviours and conduct which provide for respectful and cooperative relationships between employees, council members, committee members and the broader community; and
 - c. strengthen community confidence in the integrity of the Shire of West Arthur.
- 1.4. The Code supports the requirements detailed in the Act and associated regulations (Regulations), and forms part of the terms and conditions of employment with the Shire.
- 1.5. Employees must ensure they understand the requirements outlined in this Code, and seek guidance as required from their direct Supervisor or Human Resources.

2. STATUTORY ENVIRONMENT

The Code of Conduct observes statutory requirements of the Local Government Act 1995 (s.5.51A – Code of Conduct for Employees), Local Government Regulations Amendment (Employee Code of Conduct) Regulations 2021 and Corruption, Crime and Misconduct Act 2003.

3. CODE OF CONDUCT

3.1 Role of Employees

Definition

local government employee means a person —

- (a) employed by a local government under section 5.36(1) but does not include the CEO; or*
- (b) engaged by a local government under a contract for services;*

The role of employees is determined by the functions of the CEO as set out in S 5.41 of the Local Government Act 1995:

“The CEO’s functions are to:

- (a) advise the council in relation to the functions of a local government under this Act and other written laws;*
- (b) ensure that advice and information is available to the council so that informed decisions can be made;*
- (c) cause council decisions to be implemented;*
- (d) manage the day to day operations of the local government;*
- (e) liaise with the mayor or president on the local government’s affairs and the performance of the local government’s functions;*
- (f) speak on behalf of the local government if the mayor or president agrees;*
- (g) be responsible for the employment, management supervision, direction and dismissal of other employees (subject to S 5.37(2) in relation to senior employees);*
- (h) ensure that records and documents of the local government are properly kept for the purposes of this Act and any other written law; and*
- (i) perform any other function specified or delegated by the local government or imposed under this Act or any other written law as a function to be performed by the CEO.”*

3.2 Principles affecting the employment of employees by the Shire

The following principles, set out in section 5.40 of the Act, apply to the employment of the Shire’s employees:

- “(a) employees are to be selected and promoted in accordance with the principles of merit and equity; and*
- (b) no power with regard to matters affecting employees is to be exercised on the basis of nepotism or patronage; and*
- (c) employees are to be treated fairly and consistently; and*
- (d) there is to be no unlawful discrimination against employees or persons seeking employment by the Shire on a ground referred to in the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 or on any other ground; and*
- (e) employees are to be provided with safe and healthy working conditions in accordance with the Occupational Safety and Health Act 1984; and*
- (f) such other principles, not inconsistent with this Division, as may be prescribed.”*

4. CONFLICT AND DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST

4.1 Conflict of Interest

- (a) Employees will ensure that there is no actual (or perceived) conflict of interest between their personal interests and the impartial fulfilment of their professional duties.
- (b) Employees will not engage in private work with or for any person or body with an interest in a proposed or current contract with the Local Government, without first making disclosure to the Chief Executive Officer. In this respect, it does not matter whether advantage is in fact obtained, as any appearance that private dealings could conflict with performance of duties must be scrupulously avoided.
- (c) Employees will lodge written notice with the Chief Executive Officer describing an intention to undertake a dealing in land within the local government district or which may otherwise be in conflict with the Council's functions (other than purchasing the principal place of residence).
- (d) Employees who exercise a recruitment or other discretionary function will make disclosure before dealing with relatives or close friends and will disqualify themselves from dealing with those persons.
- (e) Employees will refrain from partisan political activities which could cast doubt on their neutrality and impartiality in acting in their professional capacity. An individual's rights to maintain their own political convictions are not impinged upon by this clause. It is recognised that such convictions cannot be a basis for discrimination and this is supported by anti-discriminatory legislation.

4.2 Financial Interest

Employees will adopt the principles of disclosure of financial interest as contained within the Local Government Act.

4.3 Disclosure of Interest

Definition:

In this clause, and in accordance with Regulation 19AA of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 –

“interest” means an interest that could, or could reasonably be perceived to, adversely affect the impartiality of the person having the interest; and includes an interest arising from kinship, friendship or membership of an association.

- (a) A person who is an employee and who has an interest in any matter to be discussed at a Council or Committee meeting attended by the person is required to disclose the nature of the interest:
 - (i) in a written notice given to the CEO before the meeting; or
 - (ii) at the meeting immediately before the matter is discussed.
- (b) A person who is an employee and who has given, or will give, advice in respect of any matter to be discussed at a Council or Committee meeting not attended by the person is required to disclose the nature of any interest the person has in the matter:
 - (i) in a written notice given to the CEO before the meeting; or
 - (ii) at the time the advice is given.
- (c) A requirement described under items (a) and (b) exclude an interest referred to in Section 5.60 of the Local Government Act 1995.
- (d) A person is excused from a requirement made under items (a) or (b) to disclose the nature of an interest if:
 - (i) the person's failure to disclose occurs because the person did not know he or she had an interest in the matter; or
 - (ii) the person's failure to disclose occurs because the person did not know the matter in which he or she had an interest would be discussed at the meeting and the person discloses the nature of the interest as soon as possible after becoming aware of the discussion of a matter of that kind.
- (e) If a person who is an employee makes a disclosure in a written notice given to the CEO before a meeting to comply with requirements of items (a) or (b), then:
 - (i) before the meeting the CEO is to cause the notice to be given to the person who is to preside at the meeting; and
 - (ii) immediately before a matter to which the disclosure relates is discussed at the meeting the person presiding is to bring the notice and its contents to the attention of the persons present.

- (f) If:
- (i) to comply with a requirement made under item (a), the nature of a person's interest in a matter is disclosed at a meeting; or
 - (ii) a disclosure is made as described in item (d)(ii) at a meeting; or
 - (iii) to comply with a requirement made under item (e)(ii), a notice disclosing the nature of a person's interest in a matter is brought to the attention of the persons present at a meeting, the nature of the interest is to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

5. PERSONAL BENEFIT

5.1 Use of Confidential Information

Employees shall not use confidential information to gain improper advantage for themselves or another person or body in ways which are inconsistent with their obligation to act impartially and in good faith, or to improperly cause harm, detriment or impairment to any person, body, or the Council.

Due discretion shall be exercised by all those who have access to confidential or sensitive information. Every matter dealt with by, or brought before, a meeting sitting behind closed doors, shall be treated as strictly confidential, and shall not without the authority of the Council be disclosed to any person other than the Council members and/or employees of the Shire (and in the case of employees only so far as may be necessary for the performance of their duties) prior to the discussion of the matter at a meeting of the Council held with open doors.

Nothing in this section prevents an officer from disclosing confidential information:

- to a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice; or
- if the disclosure is permitted by law.

5.2 Intellectual Property

The title to Intellectual Property in all duties relating to contracts of employment will be assigned to the Local Government upon its creation unless otherwise agreed by separate contract.

5.3 Improper or Undue Influence

Employees will not take advantage of their position to improperly influence Council Members or other employees in the performance of their duties or functions, in order to gain undue or improper (direct or indirect) advantage or gain for themselves or for any other person or body.

Employees shall not take advantage of their position to improperly influence any other person in order to gain undue or improper (direct or indirect) advantage or gain, pecuniary or otherwise, for themselves or for any other person or body. Similarly, employees shall not take advantage of their positions to improperly disadvantage or cause detriment to the local government or any other person.
